Severity of the Quad-City area traffic toll increased during the weekend, with a fatality occurring on Highway 111, and 24 persons suffering injuries. Thirty-five crashes were reported.

A pickup truck crashed into the rear of a tractor-trailer gasoline truck on Route 111 at the Route 162 stop sign near St. Albans about 11:15 p.m. Saturday, killing the driver of the smaller truck.

He was identified by state police as Lorrin Robinson, 28, of Mill Spring, Mo., a pipeliner for Fields Plumbing Co., East St. Louis, who was killed instantly. He suffered internal and head injuries.

Robinson, who was driving his own truck, was traveling south and was going down the south approach of the Route 111 railroad overpass when his truck slammed into the rear of the gasoline truck which was stopped for a stop sign. The driver of the larger truck, William Kellems, 27, of Pevely, Mo., was not hurt.

Plan New Housing For Kerr Islanders

Venice Okays Program To Relocate Residents Displaced by Highway

The Venice City council took its first steps Friday night to meet the problem of about 200 residents who will be displaced next year when the Illinois Highway Department buys up about two-thirds of Kerr Island as right-of-way for the Great River Road.

The council, advised by Mayor John E. Lee and City Atty. Harry Hartman that speedy action is essential, approved a resolution authorizing immediate applications to federal agencies for funds to plan and construct new Venice-located housing units for relocation of Kerr Island residents.

The resolution also authorizes the Madison County Housing Authority, whose offices are located in Madison, to act on behalf of the city in Venice in obtaining funds, constructing and administering operation of the proposed housing units.

Action on the resolution followed a report by Mayor Lee and Hartman, who told the council they had met with representatives of the Housing and Urban Development Agency and the Madison County Housing Authority to discuss the problem. A number of Boy and Girl Scout troops were among the visitors.

C. of C. Speaker Gives Details of Vietnam

"We cannot now withdraw (from Vietnam) without a satisfactory conclusion to the present war... or a series of similar wars could be expected," an audience of nearly 400 persons was told Thursday night by Robert H. Charles, assistant Secretary of the Air Force.

Charles was the speaker at the 26th annual dinner of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce held in the new cafeteria at Granite City high school. Another highlight of the meeting was the installation of new C. of C. officers, Howard Kaseberg, president, Freeman Wolfe and Leo Krom, vice-presidents, and H. E. Froelinger, treasurer.

Chester Baker was installing officer.

In his talk, Secretary Charles outlined the war in Vietnam, the trend in future conflicts, the need and character of future defense posture and the relationship between the government and industry in sustaining the defense posture.

In stressing the need for a satisfactory conclusion to the Vietnam war, he pointed to the thesis of Chinese Defense Minister Lin Biao that Communist success in this type of war will lead to other successes until at last the United States and Western Europe are surrounded and crushed.

"In his suggests that Communist activity in South Vietnam may not be an end in itself. If successful, it could be a prototype of a series of actions designed to isolate and destroy the Free World.

65,000 Ballots Forecast for Tuesday Voting

Quad-City Vote Also Expected to be Light in Off-Year Election

(Estimated story on page 9)
An estimated 65,000 Madison county voters are expected to go to the polls tomorrow to cast ballots in the 1966 general election.

About 18,000 of these will vote in the 54 precinct polling places in the Quad-City area.

The county's 184 polling places—including 32 in Granite City, 11 in Venice township, seven in Chouteau township and four in Nameoki township—will open at 6 a.m. and close at 6 p.m.

The moderate voting estimate is based on a lack of interest in what has been an unusually light schedule of campaign activities by both Democrats and Republicans. Primary interest has been centered in the fight for the U. S. Senator's post by Sen. Paul H. Douglas and Democratic ticket and Charles H. Percy on the Republican side, but this has been more statewide rather than a local campaign.

Miss Eulalia Hotz, Madison county clerk, pointed out that if a general election is held, it is lighter than that of an election involving presidential and gubernatorial candidates. Four years ago in the 1962 off-year election, only 63,435 votes were cast in the county, with 17,810 of these being counted in the Quad-City area. Total voter registration in 1962 was 116,017, while this year it is 112,486.

Primary Vote Light
In the primary election last June, the total Madison county vote amounted to only 34,033, of which 27,770 were Democratic ballots and 6,263 Republican ballots. Registration at that time was 112,808, or 322 more than it now is.

Preparations for the election are being completed today by Miss Hotz's office and by township supervisors who are responsible for equipping and setting up the polling locations. Miss Hotz has been delivering ballots and registration books since last Monday and was to complete the job today.

The county clerk's office must distribute seven different candidate ballots because of restrictions which has reapportioned Madison county into seven different senatorial, congressional and representative districts.

Voters, upon entering their polling places tomorrow, will receive six ballots. The largest, on white paper, will contain the names of candidates at national, state, district and county levels. Unlike balloting in the primary where voters may choose candidates from only one party, the vote may mark for a candidate in either of the two columns—Democratic or Republican—on the ballot. Ballots in tomorrow's election. The voter may cast a straight vote for all candidates for one or the other of the two

Partney to Seek Aid of County Historical Society in Developing Old Cemeteries

Mayor Partney, who is a freemason, said he is endeavoring to reach out to the county historical society to research the names in its volumes of county cemeteries to determine the historical value of the tracts.

"They might be able to develop the cemeteries as a memorial, last only three more years, and I'm sure there is historical perhaps something can be done before then for development of the area as a county memorial," Partney added.

He said the earliest date he has noted was a death on Feb. 1815, of a Mrs. Mary Davidson, 31. Her husband, Isaac M. Davidson, 34, died in December 1818 and was buried beside her. They have only small headstones, but it dates back far before Granite City was founded. The city was incorporated in 1886.

Hold Five Boys In 2 Car Thefts

Five Venice boys, 14 to 16 years old, were held by Venice police today awaiting the filing of auto theft charges with the Federal Bureau of Investigation agents.

Three of the boys were arrested, police said, in possession of two stolen automobiles at 3:45 p.m. Sunday. The other two boys were picked up later.

An officer on patrol saw five boys gathered about two automobiles parked along Merchants road. While he stopped to investigate, two of the boys fled, he reported, but he apprehended the other three in a game of riddle a glove compartment in one of the cars.

Police identified both cars as having been stolen during the weekend, one of them, a 1959 model, from Lucas Swift of Caseyville while it was parked at the Collinsville Shopping Center, and the other, a 1963 model, stolen from Pearl Puelo of St. Louis. (Venice authorities notified FBI agents since one of the cars was stolen in St. Louis, and were instructed to place auto theft charges against the youths and to hold them for questioning by FBI agents who were expected in Venice today.)

Percy Given Edge
Heading the candidates on the white ballot are U. S. Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D) incumbent seeking his fourth term in a hotly contested race with Charles H. Percy, Chicago businessman and former economics student of Douglas. Percy, the Republican candidate, has been given an edge over Douglas by political forecasters.

Election to the office is for a six-year term.

At the state level, voters will ballot on election of a state treasurer, an Illinois representative of public instruction and three trustees of the University of Illinois.

Candidates for state treasurer are Adlai Stevenson III, (D), Chicago, and Harris Rowe, (R), Jacksonville. Their campaign has consisted principally of a debate on the revenue article upon which voters also are to vote tomorrow.

Rowe favors the proposed amendment which he says will modernize the state tax structure. Stevenson, however, contends the proposal would burden the public with triple taxation because it would permit a flat rate income tax and at the same time permit higher levies on real property and continuation of the state sales tax.

Educational Aid Is Issue

The state level campaign for the office of superintendent of public instruction also has involved the lively campaign issue of federal aid to education. Ray Page (R), incumbent, maintains the federal government's expanding educational programs constitute a threat to state and local control of education. Page, who lives in Springfield, is opposed by Democrat Donald Prince of Bloomington. He says that a maximum limitation by Illinois schools in federal programs will strengthen local schools and lift part of the increasing burden of financing from local property taxes.

Quad City and Madison county voters also will ballot on selection of three trustees of the University of Illinois, with three candidates on each the Democratic and Republican ticket. Seeking the trusteeships on the Democratic ticket are Frances B. Watkins, Chicago; Kenney E. Williamson, Peoria, and Richard O. Hart, of Benton. Republican candidates are Donald R. Grimes, Evanston; Ralph C. Hahn, Springfield, and James A. Weatherly, Murphysboro.

In the 24th Congressional district race, incumbent Democratic Congressman Melvin Price of East St. Louis is opposed by John S. Guthrie (R) of O'Fallon, a newcomer to politics.

Price was elected in 1944 while serving as an Army enlisted man and has been re-elected every two years since. He is now seeking his 12th term. Guthrie, formerly served in the Air Force and now is a member of Belleville Carpenters local 453.

Simon Seeks Re-election

Paul Simon of Troy, incumbent Democratic state senator, is seeking re-election in the senatorial district which is now made up of the Madison county townships of Granite City, Venice, Chouteau, Nameoki, Alton, Edwardsville, Godfrey, Jarvis, Pin Oak and Wood River. He is opposed by John Moss of Granite City, a Republican precinct committeeman who became a candidate through write-in votes in the June primary.

At the state representative level there is little campaign interest due to the fact that representative committees last year named only three candidates for the 53rd District. Since three representatives are elected, the three incumbents who are candidates for new terms were re-elected by virtue of their nomination in the primary last June. They include Lloy "Curly" Harris of Granite City, Leland J. Kennedy of Alton, both Democrats, and Ralph T. Smith (R), Alton.

Four county officials are to be elected in Tuesday's balloting. These include county clerk, sheriff, county treasurer, and county superintendent of schools.

Candidates are:
County Clerk—Miss Eulalia Hoot (D), incumbent, first woman ever elected to county office in Madison county, has served as clerk since 1962 and an employee of the office 16 years prior to her election. She is opposed by Mrs. Vernice Wortman, Granite City, who was nominated by write-in vote in the June primary. She is a field supervisor in the school lunch program of the state superintendent of public instruction and is president of the Madison County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Candidates For Sheriff

Sheriff—George Musso (D), now completing a four-year term as county treasurer. He served as sheriff of Madison county from 1953 until 1962 when he was elected to the treasurer's office. He also served previously as a deputy and state parole agent. Musso is opposed by Walter J. Emde (R) of Granite City, an automobile salesman and former Illinois state highway trooper for nine years and a state driver's license examiner for ten years. He also was candidate for 12 years and was an unsuccessful candidate for sheriff in 1954.

County Treasurer—John Maer (D) of Madison, became the nominee upon the death of Stephen B. Kennedy of Alton last year. Maer has served in various administrative posts in the county government and is now administrative clerk. He served on the Madison police force 11 years. He is opposed by Pete E. Fuchs of Godfrey who was unopposed in the GOP primary. He has been active in many Alton civic and business organizations. He is president of the Illinois Credit and Adjustment, Inc.

Superintendent of Schools—William R. L. (D), incumbent, has been in educational work 42 years. He has been county superintendent since 1959. Formerly was superintendent of Havana schools for 18 years and at Bethalto for eight years. His opponent is James M. Bailey (R) assistant principal of the Alton high school and president of the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission.

Revenue Article, Education Week Programs Clerk Proposal Opposed by 4-G

The Granite Good Government Group (4-G Committee) has unanimously voted to oppose the proposed Revenue Article which will be voted on Tuesday.

The committee asserted today that "if its provisions are enacted into law, it will deprive local government of desperately needed funds, thereby causing substantial increases in the tax rate on real estate, or additional sales tax."

"Although a state income tax is inevitable, the Revenue Article raises the real possibility of an unfair type of income tax without reducing the regressive sales tax. It requires taxing individuals at the same rate as large corporations that receive special advantages from the state."

"In addition, the income tax proposal is tied in with a section abolishing personal property tax. This would serve serious consequences for the educational system in Granite City, because 38.6% of the revenue derived by the school district comes from personal property tax."

"The Revenue Article was poorly drawn and is replete with numerous questionable sections subject to many interpretations. The result of this would certainly be many long legal battles to determine what it means."

"While the Revenue Article purports to be a reform, it is actually more restrictive than the present Article."

"Voters of Illinois should reject this proposal and seek reforms of the Revenue Code as soon as possible with a more carefully drawn Revenue Article."

"The committee further urges a 'No' vote on the proposed amendment to Section 8 of Article 10 regarding the method of selection of circuit clerks. The proposed amendment would provide for selection or election of the circuit clerk."

"It is our opinion that the circuit clerk should be elected rather than appointed. Appointment would put the office in the control of the politicians and take it out of the hands of the public."

State Capital NEWS

$2 Billion Industry

Tourists spent $2,000,000,000 during their travels in the state of Illinois last year, a record level. The sum represents an increase of 9.5%, or $194 million over the total 1963 tourist money spent in the state.

Out-of-state visitors contributed $422 million of the 1964 total. This amount went toward the personal income of Illinois residents and sustained the employment of 294,309 persons in the state's travel-service industry.

The figures were disclosed this week by Gov. Otto Kerner at a luncheon meeting in the Big Mark Hotel in Chicago. More than 100 executives of tourist-oriented industries from throughout the state attended.

Carbon Monoxide Deadly
A total of 167 accidental deaths due to carbon monoxide was reported in the state during 1963, Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, reported.

The danger of this poisonous gas is greatly increased because, unlike many other poisons, it has no taste, no odor, does not irritate the eyes or nose and has no visible signs of its presence cannot be detected by any of the senses.

While carbon monoxide deaths are reported throughout the entire year, more occur during the winter months. Closed windows, lack of proper ventilation and a faulty heating system can be lethal.

Of the 167 accidental deaths, 101 occurred in the home. No records are available concerning the number of persons non-fatally poisoned by carbon monoxide.

Governor's Christmas Party
The annual Christmas party given for children by Gov. and Mrs. Otto Kerner will be Saturday, Dec. 10, at the Illinois State Armory, Springfield. This is a traditional event in the state capital.

The party is financed by the Democratic State Central Committee and is hosted by the Sangamon county Democratic committee.

Federal Aid Programs
A series of meetings to explain the various federal aid programs available to local governments is being conducted throughout the state by Sam B. Eubanks, assistant to Gov. Otto Kerner.

The meetings were planned following a survey of Illinois municipal officials who expressed an interest in current information concerning federal aid programs benefiting local governments.

At the meetings Eubanks describes the operation of the Office of Local Governmental Affairs, comments on various federal aid programs and distributes pamphlets describing many of the programs.

The next meeting will be Nov. 9 at 7 p.m., Kewanee, at the Andris Waunee Farm restaurant.

Hospital Grants
Hospital improvement grants of $1,191,875 by the federal government this year have been designated for six Illinois Department of Mental Health facilities. Through the National Institute of Mental Health hospital improvement program, another $1,100,000 in grants is being used for projects at three other department institutions.

Elin St. Louis Hospital has been allocated $20,000 annually for three years for a discharge planning project for patients with employment potential.

Kankakee State Hospital has been awarded a $300,000 grant for a geriatric and infant patient program over the next three years.

The Illinois Security Hospital, Menard, has been awarded $100,000 annually for a three-year program of recreational rehabilitation.

East Moline State Hospital has been given a year's grant of $100,000 for rehabilitation of infirm, elderly, mentally ill patients.

Lincoln State School has been granted $22,625 annually for three years to prepare about 600 residents for independent community life.

Chicago State Hospital has been granted $100,000 for a one-year program of prevention of long-term hospitalization.

Dixon State School, Manteno State Hospital and the Anna State Hospital are furthering programs that have been granted them under this program. Each has a $100,000-per-year program for various improvements.

Dump Operators Say Control Law Would Boost Costs, Fees

Government agencies are being forced into adopting regulatory measures over landfill operations because of existing conditions at a majority of such operations, landfill operators and oil company representatives were told at a public hearing in Edwardsville Thursday afternoon.

Marion Crowe, operator of the Edwardsville landfill, told the meeting that operators will have to increase the fees for garbage pickups because it will cost operators more to abide by terms of the ordinance.

The hearing was the first of a series planned by the Sanitation committee of the county board of supervisors which has prepared a regulatory ordinance upon which the county board is expected to act in its meeting this month. The second hearing will be held in the courthouse at Edwardsville next Thursday afternoon.

Venice Man Fined $200 On Series of Charges

Blue Devils Stop Warriors 27-6 Despite Stout Defense

The Quincy Blue Devils, led by the fine performance of Quarterback Alan Bush, pluckered the Granite City Warriors 27-6 Friday evening on the Quincy gridiron. A non-conference battle, it was the Warriors' sixth defeat of the season.

The Warriors received the opening kickoff and drove the ball to the 40. The Blue Devil defense held, and Granite City was forced to punt.

Terry Moore booted the ball well, sending Quincy deep man Wayne Palmer to the 15, but after a block on a Warrior defender, Palmer sped 85 yards for a touchdown. The conversion attempt was off to the left and Quincy still led 6-0 at the end of the quarter.

Effective Passing — Quincy scored twice in the second period on two Bush-to-Norris passes for 10 and 30 yards. The first score followed a Granite City fumble and the Warrior seven-yard line.

Later in the same period, with Quarterback Bush eluding the Granite City pass rush, he found Blue Devil Norris in the flats.

Norris, who also does Quincy's place kicking, converted on both occasions, giving Quincy a 20-0 edge at halftime.

Conway Injured — The Warriors lost first-string quarterback Steve Conway in the first period. He suffered a muscle tear in his right leg.

With Junior Dave Snelson calling signals, Granite City continued to have trouble putting together a substantial drive during the first half.

Granite City engineered a 69-yard drive in the third period for its only score of the game. With the ball on the Warrior 20, Snelson gave to left halfback Rich Paoli, who swept 45 yards around left end to the Quincy 15.

Partners Scores — From there, Paoli took a Snelson handoff and cracked 15 yards up the middle for a touchdown. The PAT was missed, and Granite City trailed 26-6 as the period ended.

Midway through the fourth period, Quincy again hit paydirt, with fullback Pete Fisher scoring on a one-yard run. Norris added the point after touchdown as Quincy led the game 27-6.

"The boys, particularly in the second half, did a real good job," observed Warrior mentor Jim Morrison.

Interceptions by Anderson — Defensive end David Anderson intercepted two consecutive Blue Devil passes in the fourth period.

The Warrior defensive line did an excellent job during the entire game, virtually stopping the Quincy rushing attack and tackling the Quincy quarterback behind the line of scrimmage a number of times," Morrison noted.

Warrior offensive end Jim Stuart caught Snelson spirals for 47 and 27 yards in the last quarter. Paoli highlighted the Warrior rushing attack, netting 60 yards in seven carries for an 8.5 average.

Morrison added, "The wrap-up on the season will show that this will be our best year offensively in total yardage gained."

The Warriors will end the 1966 season against Belleville West Friday at 8 p.m. on the Granite City field.

Junior Girl Scout Troop 704 met with the leader, Mrs. Pat Eaton, at Webster school Friday afternoon. The Secret Agent patrol opened the meeting with a flag ceremony and the scout laws.

Reports were given by the scribe, Sharon Emring, and treasurer, Dianne Emring. JoAnn Head reported on the troop's Halloween party, and reading of a letter from the Girl Scout patrol club followed.

The troop discussed Girl Scout calendar sales and a trip to the Brica Brac Doll Museum in Elmhurst, Ill., next week instead of the regular troop meeting.

Secret pal names were drawn by the girls, and puzzles and games were played. The impossible patrol closed the meeting with "Taps."

Members present were Debbie Bird, Ruth Bird, Kitty Chapline, Cindy Childers, Pam Clay, Dianne Emring, Sharon Emring, Kathy Harrington, JoAnn Head, Karen Lee, Donna Sanders, Linda Sarin, Mary Sarin, Frances Welly, Vickie Welly and Kathy Wood.

Optimist Club, C. of C. Place 51 Trash Barrels

Following through on a program set forth by the Civic Improvement committee of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, the Granite City Optimist Club began Saturday to set out 51 thirty-gallon trash barrels at locations throughout the city.

The barrels were supplied to the club without charge by the Nesco Steel Barrel Co., and the Optimist Club members bought the dome tops and painted the containers a bright yellow.

Taking part in a brief ceremony Saturday morning for placing the first can on the northeast corner at 20th street and Delmar avenue were Mayor Partney, Optimist Club President Wilbert Triebes and Arthur Roseman, member of the club and the C. of C.

Other street locations for the trash containers, labeled as "litter hide aways" are—

Work for Handicapped

Production Center Council Pleased with Response

An excellent response to registration day held Friday for persons interested in employment at the Tri-Cities production center for the handicapped, soon to start production here, was announced today by Milton Morris, vice-chairman of the center's advisory council.

Morris reported a number of applicants were waiting to register when representatives of the Illinois department of rehabilitation and staff members from Specialized Services, Inc., arrived at the center location, 2007-09 Madison avenue, early Friday morning. Prospective trainees were interviewed by qualified personnel.

An evaluation study is made to determine each individual's capability in the training area, Morris said. He added that all those accepted for employment at the center also are required to undergo a physical examination before starting training programs.

The first sheltered workshop center in Madison county, operated by Special Services Inc., has successfully functioned for nearly five years in Alton. More than 120 handicapped workers are employed in the Alton facility, including 14 residents of the Quad-Cities.

Work contracts accepted by the centers primarily must have instructional value, Morris explained, in order to teach various skills and provide employment to both the physically and mentally handicapped. Supervision and instruction is provided by qualified persons in each phase of the training and production work. Additional guidance is furnished by Southern Illinois University, which allows Specialized Services to utilize special departments of education and research. Some of those trained at the centers later are placed in jobs with private concerns, Morris said. He added that workers are paid while training with proceeds from contractual work.

The Tri-Cities production center, which is scheduled to open within the next ten days, will concentrate initially on training of wearing apparel, sewing tasks and repair of soda bottle cases.

Red Cross Program

226 Pints of Blood Given At First Donor Station

The first blood donor stations under the new blood protection program of the Tri-City American Red Cross Chapter were conducted Wednesday and Thursday at General Steel Industries.

Mrs. Ruby Overbeck, local Red Cross executive, reported today a total of 226 pints of blood was donated in the two days by GSI employees.

In its initial stage of operations, the new blood protection program primarily is geared for large industrial group participation.

Under the plan, blood donations provided by one-fourth of the number of plant employees over a 12-month period, guarantees all of the whole blood required by all employees, members of the employees' immediate household, parents, in-laws, grandparents and grand-children-in-law.

Mrs. Overbeck said that operations went very smoothly at the initial blood donor stations with a Red Cross Bloodmobile Unit complete with beds and other equipment used as the donation center. Assistance was provided the unit's nursing staff by volunteers from the Tri-City Chapter, she explained.

A total of 101 pints was collected between 12:30 and 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, while 125 pints were received from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Floyd T. Mitchell, Tri-City ARC blood program chairman said. Additional trips will be made to the local plant within the next 12 months to complete the GSI's quota of approximately 600 pints, required to match the plant's employee force of about 240.

Several other area industries still are considering joining the new protection program, Mitchell said. The next industrial group to participate will be employees of A. O. Smith Corp., with donation stations scheduled to be held at the plant in February.

Cropland Adjustments For 1967 Announced

According to Lee Rogers, of the Madison county ASCS office, the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced continuation of the cropland adjustment program for 1967 with a dual objective of farm and nonfarm benefits through conservation, recreational and open space uses.

The program for 1967 provides generally higher rates for putting and under cropland adjustment. These rates reflect improvement in commodity prices and apply to those crops for which surplus potential continues to exist.

The Greenspan provisions of the program will continue to help State and local governments acquire cropland for nonfarm uses, such as, preservation of open spaces and natural beauty, wildlife habitat and recreation, and the prevention of air and water pollution.

Department officials pointed out the 1967 program is geared to the changed need for agricultural production. As a result, the program is aimed to those crops with surplus implications, such as, feed grains, cotton, peanuts and tobacco. The program will continue to emphasize the shift of land to public benefit uses which also conserve soil and water to meet future needs.

The program is expected to be of particular benefit to farmers who want to retire or take jobs in industry, or for other reasons want to change their production pattern. The program provides means by which they can shift their land into new uses and at the same time apply the needed conservation measures for long-time benefit to land.

Farmers who participate will receive payments based on past use and productivity of the land. For land that would otherwise produce corn and grain sorghum, the National average rates will be 50 cents per bushel for corn and 42 cents per bushel for grain sorghum with varying rates by counties. The payment will be acre, compared to about $5 per acre for the 1966 program. The wheat, rice, and barley acreage included in this group instead of 40 of having individual rates as for 1966.

After placing all of the acreage of one or more of the above crops in the program—except the acreage for home use of feed crops—farmers may include other crop land. The rates for this cropland will average Nationally $8 per

Colorful Array of Ballots Confront Tuesday Voters

Tomorrow's general election will, without question, be a "colorful" one.

Every voter, checking into a polling place, will receive from the election judges six different ballots.

The general election ballot for state, district and county candidates will be white.

In addition, there will be a green one, a blue one, another on pink paper, still another on tan paper and the remaining one on orchid paper.

This array of colored paper will be the result of a series of five special propositions upon which Quad-City and Madison county citizens are to ballot in connection with the general election.

The color of the ballot not only aids the voter in distinguishing one proposition from another, but also is helpful to the county clerk's office in tabulating returns. So important is the color of a ballot that the color selected by the county clerk first must be certified by the Illinois Secretary of State before the ballots are printed.

Green Ballot

The green ballot will present the question of retaining four Associate Circuit Judges of the Third Judicial Circuit, Judges Austin Lewis, I. H. Streppel III, Michael Kinney and Fred P. Schuman, for new six-year terms. Associate judges, like the circuit's three regular judges, no longer are chosen by competitive balloting, but by a yes or no vote as to whether or not they should be retained in office.

Names of all four judges will be on the ballot, but each will have a yes and no voting box opposite the name. Voters have only to express their wishes by marking an X within the appropriate boxes.

The blue ballot, like the others, will present a yes or no proposition. The blue ballot will present the proposition of amending the state constitution to permit revision of the Illinois Revenue Article. The Revenue amendment has been a highly controversial issue during the election campaign and has the support of many business, industrial and labor groups and organizations, as well as many prominent legislators, educators and government officials.

Would Change Bank Act

The pink ballot involves the question of revising the Illinois

Psychiatric Aides to Begin Special Classes

Special remediation instruction will begin this week at Alton State Hospital for psychiatric aides who show "natural aptitude and proper personality qualifications." Dr. Abraham Simon, hospital superintendent, announced. He described the course as part of the continuing educational program to improve skills of psychiatric aides at the state institution.

Remediation, Dr. Simon explained, is designed to benefit the withdrawn patients by relieving them of imaginative thoughts and re-establishing their interest in "real things." It is accomplished through group discussions led by a trained worker who evokes responses to a pre-determined subject.

Dr. Albert Sala, remediation coordinator, who will instruct the course, said leaders in discussion sessions must be articulate and carry conviction in his presentation to stimulate patient response. About 15 psychiatric aides and several refresher students are enrolled in the new course.

TO: The Voters of Madison County, Illinois

Dear Voter:

On, Tues., Nov. 8, 1966, you will go to the polls and cast your ballot for the candidate of your choice. I am the Democratic candidate for County Treasurer. I sincerely and earnestly solicit your vote.

From time to time various letters and articles have appeared, written by people who have never met me personally, criticizing my nomination by the Madison Democratic Committee.

There has never been any criticism against my qualifications and experience for the office I seek.

I have devoted 14 years of my life to public service. My opponent and critics cannot and do not question my integrity, diligence and duty to public service during this time.

My opponent has not set forth his qualifications, but bases his platform upon the endorsement of a few disgruntled members of the party.

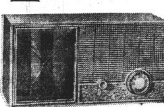

I believe my experience and service in public office qualifies me for the office I seek, the office of Treasurer of Madison County.

Sincerely Yours,

Rain on Friday Causes 10 Crashes in GC

Less than a half-inch of rain was recorded, but it played a part in 10 traffic crashes occurring in about eight hours from 5:15 Friday to 1:30 a.m. Saturday in Granite City.

Although 20 vehicles were damaged, no injuries were recorded in the collisions, including two occurring at Nameoki road and St. Clair avenue, two on Edwardsville road and two on Madison avenue. In one crash on Edwardsville road, an auto went under a stalled tractor-trailer truck.

The first rain crash at 5:15 p.m. was at Nameoki road and St. Clair avenue, involving autos driven by Pauline Turkin, 1804 Edwardsville road, who was going south and making a left turn, and Phyllis Rosenberg, 2284 Cleveland blvd., who was traveling west and making a left turn.

At 5:30 p.m., at 18th street and Grand avenue, the auto of Theodore Stamboldjev, 74 Cambridge drive, slid on wet pavement through a stop sign and was involved in a collision with an auto driven east on 18th street by Willie Townzen, 1729 Delmar avenue. Stamboldjev was charged with a right-of-way violation.

Car Goes Under Trailer
In the 1300 block of Edwardsville road, the auto of Kenneth Travis of Bend road, ran under a stalled tractor-trailer truck, parked in the right lane. Police said Travis was traveling south. The truck belongs to Northwest Dravage, St. Louis, and the driver was Henry Hicks of St. Louis. The crash occurred at 6:00 p.m.

Twenty minutes later in the 2200 block of Madison avenue, John Spangler, 2221 Desev avenue, who said he thought he recognized a pedestrian on the sidewalk, crashed his car into the rear of the auto of East St. Louis, 2400 Grand avenue. Both vehicles were traveling south, and Spangler was charged with careless driving.

The second crash at Nameoki road and St. Clair avenue occurred at 6:45 p.m., involving westbound autos driven by Lynn Collins, 2821 Saratoga avenue, who was stopped for traffic, and Georgia Pappas, 4010 Braden avenue.

The second accident on Edwardsville road was at 20th street about 9 p.m. and involved eastbound autos of Anthony Fenoglio, 2524 Circle drive, and Herman Miller, 1344 Edwardsville road. Both drivers were making left turns onto 20th street at the time of the crash.

Two Charges Filed

charge with leaving the scene of an accident and a stop sign violation.

Police said Harris was going south on August street and the other car was being driven west by But Fields, 2133 Miracle avenue.

Shelia Teator, 2043 Sixth street, reported to police about 11:30 p.m. that she was making a turn into the Shack Shack parking lot at Niedringhaus and Washington avenues, her auto was sideswiped by a blue 1958 Buick that sped away. She said she followed the car to Route 162 but was unable to stop the driver.

At 11:55 p.m. eastbound auto driven by Jerry Deen and John Elms, both of East St. Louis, were involved in an accident on Niedringhaus avenue at 20th street.

Early Saturday, at 1:30 a.m., Troy Coleman, 2240 Jefferson avenue, was driving south in the 1500 block of Madison avenue, and when he reached over in turn on the defroster, he swerved when passed by another auto, and his car hit a parked car belonging to Bob Smith, 808 Allen street.

Cooper and Cross Nuptials At Tri-City Park Church

Miss Judith Karen Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Cross, 2028 Fourth street, Madison, and Larry Cooper, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cooper, 4900 Mueller avenue, were married Thursday evening at Tri-City Park Tabernacle.

White flowers and candlelight provided the setting for the 7 o'clock ceremony performed by the Rev. Lloyd Shoemaker and a reception was held afterward in the church social rooms.

Miss Donna Carter was maid of honor and Miss Kathryn Allen was bridesmaid. Mr. Cooper had Ethan Allen as best man. Garland Horn served as groomsmen and ushers were Robert Rash and Gary Hildreth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a full-length gown of Chantilly lace and crepe. Fashioned with an Empire waistline, the molded lace bodice featured a scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves, ending in points over the wrists. A Watteau train of crepe matching the skirt was attached at the shoulder with lace bows.

The bridal veil of silk illusion was secured with a Queen's crown of pearls and sequins and she carried an arrangement of white carnations and stephanotis, forming a cascade.

The attendants wore identical gowns of olive green velvet and peau de soie, designed in the Empire style. The brides were re-embroidered velvet over satin, with rounded necklines and three-quarter length sleeves. Floor-length skirts of peau de soie were enhanced with two unpressed satin pleats, cascading from the back waist to the hemline.

Their headpieces were forward velvet roses, embellished with tiny seed pearls and sequins, and they held bouquets of carnations tinted green to match their dresses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cross chose a gold lace suit, while Mrs. Cooper appeared in a navy blue costume. Both had black accessories and corsages of white carnations.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Madison high school. The former Miss Cross is employed by the U. S. Army Adit Agency in St. Louis.

The bridegroom, who recently completed basic training at Amarillo Air Force Base, Tex., has now been assigned to McConnell AFB, Wichita, Kan., where the newly-married couple plan to live.

Vinson, 101 East Johnson street, Col. son, her daughter's wedding, Linville, whose mother, Mrs. Esther Vinson, resides in Cairo, Ill., was solemnized at seven o'clock Saturday evening.

Arrangements of white chrysanthemums and greenery formed the setting for the double-ring ceremony, performed at the home of the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Pollock, 4908 Carl avenue. Rev. W. L. Showers, retired minister of the Second Baptist Church, officiated.

The former Miss Tyler, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a two-piece costume in pale blue, designed with an embossed lace effect in white. Her headpiece was a tiny circlet and brief veil in matching blue and she had a corsage of the same color lilies at the waist.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vinson, of Madison, brother and sister-in-law of the groom, were the couple's only attendants. The latter selected a two-piece suit in pink, with complementary accessories, and her flowers were white baby chrysanthemums.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McFarland appeared in a turquoise costume, while Mr. Vinson wore a dark blue suit. Both mothers had matching accessories and white corsages.

Several guests from Cairo, Ill., and the bride's relatives were among the approximately 60 relatives who attended a reception held at the Pollock home immediately following the ceremony.

The bride was graduated in 1964 from Granite City high school and until she resigned last week was employed in the credit department at the First Granite City National Bank.

Her husband, who attended Cairo schools, is a U. S. Army aviator. He also is employed at the same local bank as a printer.

"Attention Voters"

Democrats and Republicans are you desirous of maintaining a two party system? If the answer is yes, then you should vote for the best candidate in the field of plain good common sense at the polls.

Boys and girls, when you selected your mates, did you not select what you believed to be the best? Yes, however, in many cases, both have made improper selections resulting in many divorces and in future cases of hardship by the State, trying to support and educate the children left behind on far too inadequate child support, thus increasing the tax burden of State Aid and ADC.

Now the same story applies when you select candidates for the various offices of public trust. If you elect power and money hungry politicians, you have selected parents of bad government and the only result will be inadequate and proper support of the masses. Only a few of the politicians class type will derive the cream benefits. You, the taxpayers, pay the bill for rubber stamp legislation.

Now, on November 8, you have an opportunity to divorce yourselves of this present rotten system that has hoarded over your mislaid souls for the past 34 years. Vote Republican straight or split. Let us even up the score of checks and balances in our government from the County up to the national. Let us evaluate past legislation of all Aswers—a national picture larger than the combined nations, 4 1/2 times the total proper value of North America, namely, 1 Trillion, Two Hundred and Sixty-Two Billion of dollars, to alarming debt. Babies being born today are crying more than they did 34 years ago. Why? I will tell you why. If you were only 8 hours old and out at a job and owed you a tax debt of 7,000 dollars, you would have a galloped buttock and wet pants, what do you think you would do?

You are much older, matured to a legal voting age, so relieve the innocent babies of the present system that we have brought upon yourselves. Don't apply the slogan of "God, Save the King", save the children of our future generation. Let them come to the present system that we have brought upon ourselves. "God, this is my mom and pop. They saved this great nation from the clutches of a group of power and money hungry politicians. Let them rest in peace forever. Please don't ask them to vote anymore. Please do not prostitute their names at the ballot box on November 8. Their bones will be apart when they turn over in their graves.

Think of Viet Nam! The Korean War, World War 2, and World War I—did the masses of people, gain? Answer — thousands of broken hearts, homes, increased juvenile delinquency, robbery, murder, prostitution, a multitude of sins of every known nature, and the ravages of all Wars!

Now a 39¢ purchasing power dollar, caused by the stupidity of a group of power and money hungry ideologues that do not possess brains enough to come in out of the rain, if it was a downpour of pig iron.

Don't elect a man for the reason that he wrote a couple of books. What were the titles? I read a lot of Simple Simon's History when I was a boy—all fiction.

It is hard to fool an old horsefly. He knows when he has it on a bonny and moves fast. The elephant has a tough hide, but once inside, he has very rich juice and plenty of it. Get smart and listen up a wee bit, vote Republican November 8. This elephant is loaded with plenty of legislative juice that may strike, the chords of future content and happiness.

Don't let the maturity of age make your decision. Age denotes experience if properly applied with honesty, courage and integrity. Anyway I am not as old as Paul Douglas and much sounder than my present dollar and much sharper than your present hand shaking boy. Some people have a plowed brain—mine has been cultivated from the days of the rule board plow and cradle scythe. Like the elephant of the circus, I possess a wonderful memory! I have not forgot the good times. We do not have to drop back to the early 19th century. We can advance with prosperity and progress. Charity begins at home, let us play a few years of Santa Claus to our very own people. It might bring future peace and happiness. It is worth a try. Now what do you think? Get out and vote, vote right. If I cannot do you any good, I will not do you any harm. If you need something, my philosophy will be the facsimile of Mas Weat, "Come up and see me some time." I will not pass the buck! Or hide. You will be my boss, not my servant.

I have refused many offers of financial help. In my campaign, if elected I do not want any class legislation strings attached to my administration. I will call my shins for the benefit of every man, woman and child in my sovereign state of Illinois. My price is my conscience. That is not for sale. God and mom gave me this. I prize priceless.

Give Granite City the honor of a fighting Senator. My campaign expense has been paid by the people of Granite City. No one single nickel has been furnished for crooked legislation. If elected, my conscience will be the honest statesman aspiring, not a mug-wump politician, namely as branded in the past, a walking encyclopedia. This is a great honor, not an insult.

Paul Douglas and Paul Simon are 100% for the forcing of civil rights — remember, Paul Simon turned his back on organized labor not too long ago when he aspired for the present Senate seat he now holds—he apparently felt that he did not need the support of organized labor to win. He did not have opposition at that time. Now he has a retired union man opposing him—yet organized labor indorses him.

Your vote very highly appreciated.

The officials said the possibility of constructing a "high-rise" unit which would be open only to the elderly residents of the area was discussed. The resolution authorized separate applications for grant funds for regular low-cost housing units to accommodate the bulk of the island's displaced population, and for elderly persons.

Purchase of right-of-way is scheduled to start early next year, according to highway department officials, and the land is expected to be cleared for progress on highway construction by early 1968.

Optimists Complete Planning For Youth Appreciation Week

Special activities planned by the Granite City Optimist Club for "Youth Appreciation Week," Nov. 14-20 were announced Thursday by John Dreves, Optimist boys' work chairman. Events including a dinner party, attendance at a high school football game, a trophy presentation and a teenage dance.

Initiating the week-long observance will be a kickoff dinner for Optimist members and their wives at 6 p.m. Friday, at the Rose Bowl restaurant. Following dinner, the group will attend the season's traditional wind-up gridiron contest between the Granite City Warriors and Belleville West Maroons, at the local's field.

Dreves said that special half-time ceremonies will be conducted by the local men's service club, including presentation of a trophy to Lawrence C. McCauley, high school principal. The trophy will be kept at the school to be awarded next spring to a local graduating senior, who most typifies the true "Spirit of Optimism."

Friday's half-time program also will feature introduction of the seven successful candidates in the "Youth in Government Day" elections to be held tomorrow at Coolidge, Prather and Central junior high schools.

Optimist club members are to make reservations for the dinner as soon as possible with A. E. Michel, at TR 6-1623.

Dreves discussed "Youth Appreciation Week" plans at the club's weekly luncheon meeting held in the YMCA Thursday. Members also voted to sponsor the club's first teenage dance in connection with the annual observance. The event will be held from 8:30-11:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 19, at the YMCA. No charge will be made to local teenagers and dancing will be to live music provided by a high school combo.

The appearance of Jesse "Jit" Nichols, an investment consultant with Edward D. Jones Co., a St. Louis investment firm, also highlighted Thursday's meeting. Introduced by Jack Dempsey, program chairman, Nichols explained the basic operation of the stock market and described the results of fluctuations in the market in recent years.

A new record-high attendance was set at the meeting, with 37 members present. Wilbert Tribes, president was in charge, and announced a board meeting for 5 p.m. today at his office.

Youth, 19, Jailed for Theft, Tries Suicide

An inmate of the Madison county jail from Alton who attempted to commit suicide by drinking a cleaning fluid was rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital here for emergency treatment last week and led to criticsisms by Sheriff Barney Fraundorf of the court system.

Medical officials were able to determine from the manufacturer at Rochester, N. Y., that the fluid was non-poisonous, and the inmate was returned to the jail. He had asked for the fluid to clean some clothes.

He was identified as Robert Thompson, 19, who was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail by Alton Magistrate George Roberts for shoplifting two cartons of cigarettes.

Upon his return, a jailer discovered him attempting to hang himself by using his shirt. When he was heard talking about hanging himself again, he was examined by an Edwardsville physician and was committed to Alton State Hospital.

Thompson, who had been placed on probation in 1964 for attempted burglary, admitted stealing 18 cartons of cigarettes from two Alton stores the day before his arrest last month and more than $600 worth of cigarettes since the first of the year.

Fraundorf said that someone should have detected that he had a possible mental condition before he was tried in court, and that he should have been committed to the state hospital immediately, before he was brought to court on the misdemeanor.

The sheriff noted that state statutes require a person to be mentally competent before he can stand trial on any criminal charge.

Interstate Bridge at Cairo Under Study

State and federal highway officials are reviewing preliminary plans for a $17 million four-lane interstate highway bridge to be constructed over the Mississippi River north of Cairo.

The bridge will carry the insignia of Interstate 57 which extends from Chicago to St. Louis, Mo., where it connects with other routes on the Interstate System.

The proposed bridge will have two 12-foot traffic lanes in each direction. Opposing lanes are to be divided by a median. Estimated cost of $17,000,000 for the bridge includes approaches on each side of the river.

Location of the proposed bridge has been pinpointed in the preliminary plans at a point 7.5 miles north of the confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers at the extreme southern tip of Illinois.

WASTE GAS MAIN being hoisted into position on the structural steel framework for the new basic oxygen furnace plant at Granite City Steel Co. The 100-foot, 60,000-pound section is part of the $3½-million high efficiency system for cleaning waste gases from the company's new steelmaking plant.

Waste Gas Main Installed To Remove Smoke at Mill

A 100-foot, 60,000-pound section of a waste gas main, part of the $3½-million high efficiency system for cleaning waste gases from the new steelmaking plant at Granite City Steel Co., was hoisted into position last week. It was placed on the structural steel framework for a large new basic oxygen furnace plant. The waste gas main, 12 feet in diameter, will carry dust-laden gases from the basic oxygen furnaces to the largest electrostatic precipitators in the two-state area.

The equipment is designed to remove 99.45% of the dust in the furnace exhaust gases, which will mean the virtual elimination of the orange colored smoke which has been characteristic of steelmaking by the open hearth furnace method presently in use at Granite City Steel.

The precipitators will be able to handle more than a million cubic feet of gas a minute. The industry's new basic oxygen furnace plant is scheduled for completion in mid-1967.

Will the bills cost you $175 more than they should?

They might, if you have to borrow the money to pay them.
(Repaying that loan will cost you a pretty penny in interest charges.)

But if you make a habit of saving with us, with the people who specialize in saving, you will have the money when you need it.

The difference between borrowing to pay the bills for your baby or saving ahead and getting earnings on your savings could furnish the nursery. Saving makes the difference.

7 Basic 'Start Checks' For Winter Motoring

Falling leaves and falling temperatures mean that mosquito bites will be replaced as the number one gripe of Americans by the bite of winter. Area motorists can prepare their cars for winter, now, says the AAA, Automobile Club, Illinois Division. There are seven basic checks to remember to help assure a start of the family auto on the frosty winter mornings sure to come. The Auto Club "Start Checks" are:

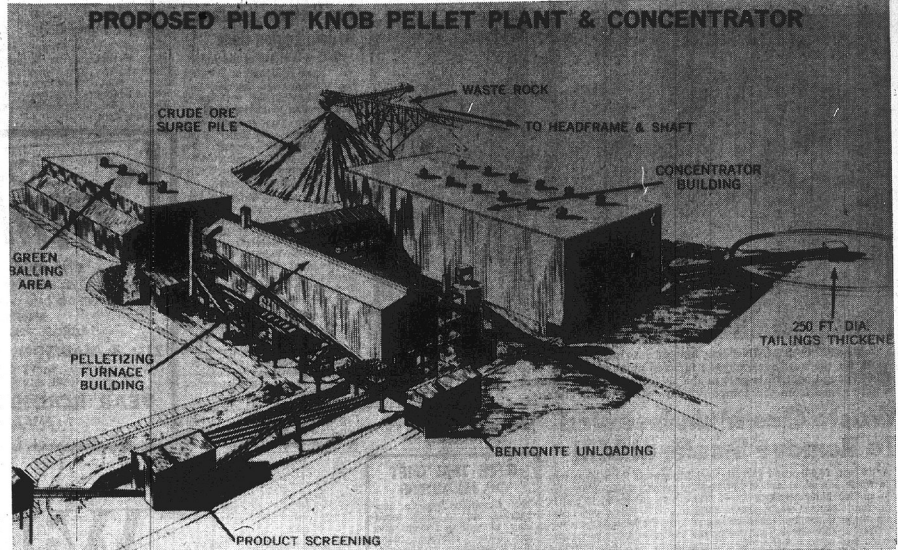

Two Divorce Decrees Granted by Court

Two divorce decrees were issued last week to area couples in Madison county circuit court. The divorces were granted to: Earlene Bruce of Madison from Jake Bruce of Chicago. They were married July 9, 1940, in St. Louis, and separated Dec. 1, 1944. Desertion was charged. Wanda Brethold from Colvin and defroster. 4. Check car's points, plugs and condenser. 5. Pressure test car's cooling system. 6. Check thermostat, heater and defroster. 7. Install sufficient anti-freeze. All cars, regardless of age or mileage, require these basic checks and preparations to assure summer starts in winter. The Auto Club advises that now is the time to have a car totally winterized for reliable transportation all winter. The Auto Club says it simply: "Take the Bite Out of Winter."

Damaged in Madison

An auto driven by Mrs. Norma M. Warren of 35 Kasberg drive, was damaged in the left rear at 3 p.m. Thursday at 12th street and Madison avenue. Madison police said Mrs. Warren's car was struck by one driven by William Douglas, 1310 Madison avenue, as he backed into Madison avenue. Douglas' car was undamaged.

IRON ORE PELLETIZING PLANT for Granite City Steel Co. being built near Pilot Knob, Mo., will supply 1,000,000 tons annually to the steel mill's blast furnaces—one-third more than originally planned. The pellet plant is to be ready in 1968—in time for the completion of Granite City Steel's multi-million dollar expansion and modernization program.

Creation of Mounds Indian Village Planned by State

State funds for restoration of an Indian Village similar to those that once occupied the Cahokia Mounds area during a period long before Columbus' discovery of America will be sought in the next session of the Illinois General Assembly early next year, according to an announcement by William Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation. The plan was made known at the same time the department revealed that it is near completion of option arrangements with owners of the St. Louis Downtown Airport, on the western outskirts of Collinsville and just southeast of the existing Cahokia Mounds State Park, and is negotiating with ten landowners for purchase of 518 acres of land that eventually will permit expansion of the park and creation of a major national tourist attraction.

Many universities now are participating in excavation of the mounds, particularly Monks mounds where earth borings have shown the mound once was topped by ceremonial buildings and apparently was the location of tribal rites for tribes throughout the midwest. Under the plan, the division of parks and memorials of the Department of Conservation would operate the park playgrounds, campgrounds and other tourist facilities, while the museum will operate the archeological development and restoration project.

Area Has 86 Mounds
The conservation department announced that plans call for construction of a village as it would have looked when the Mississippi Indians occupied an area dotted with 86 mounds in East St. Louis, Mitchell, St. Louis and Looking Glass Prairie east of Belleville. The project will be a cooperative effort of the Illinois State Museum and Department of Conservation.

Highway is Problem
One problem is construction of an access road by the Illinois Highway Department to the 25-acre Indian tract west of the planned Interstate Highway 255 which will cut through the park. It will make the third highway to traverse the park which already is located along Interstate 70 and U. S. 40.

Diesel Smoke Results In Alarm at RR Yards

Firemen from the main station were called at 1:15 p.m. Friday to the rail yards at 25th street where a resident of the area reported a box car fire. The firefighters were told by a yard worker that the dense black smoke was coming from a diesel motor on a refrigerator car, and that there was no blaze. A half-hour later, firemen were called to Nameoki drive and the railroad tracks to extinguish a weed fire. There was no loss.

$8535 Suit on File
Leo Doebelin has filed suit for $8535 plus interest and costs in Madison county circuit court against Harold W. and Shirley J. Holson, Granite City. The complaint alleges that on Jan. 1, 1958, the defendants executed a promissory note for $11,000, but a principal balance of $8535 has remained due since Dec. 23, 1960.

Farm Ownership Loans Aiding Younger Farmers

Many young farmers in Madison, Monroe and St. Clair counties are finding the farm ownership loan program of the Farmers Home Administration an effective tool to buy the farms of their retiring elders or even to expand their own small operations.

Harold F. Kiepe, Farmers Home Administration supervisor serving the three-county area, said today, "The demand for this type of credit is greater today than it has even been before. Established farmers need this sort of credit to enlarge and update their operations, other farmers need this type of credit to work their way out of financial difficulties and, in many cases, they need to use their equity in real estate to restructure on manageable terms short-term debts incurred for long-range improvements."

Family farmers may use FHA's farm ownership loans to combine small land tracts into economic units, establish permanent pastures, finance needed soil and water improvements, construct or renovate dwellings and essential farm buildings or take other steps to increase farm income-producing capacity and efficiency.

The agency's farm ownership loans also may be used to develop income-producing recreational enterprises. Most popular as well as most profitable facilities are camping grounds, lakes and ponds for fishing and boating and picnic areas.

Like other FHA loans, farm ownership assistance is advanced to qualified family farmers who are unable to obtain credit from conventional lenders. Farm ownership loans are advanced at 5% interest payable over 40 years.

A dynamic man?

A thoughtful man?

A vigorous-minded man?

A trustworthy man?

A warm-hearted man?

A man who cares how people live?

A man who knows how to get things done

...and has proved it all his life?

You can have all these in one fine American when you vote for Charles Percy on November 8.

A strong new

Look ahead. Elect Charles Percy your next U.S. Senator.

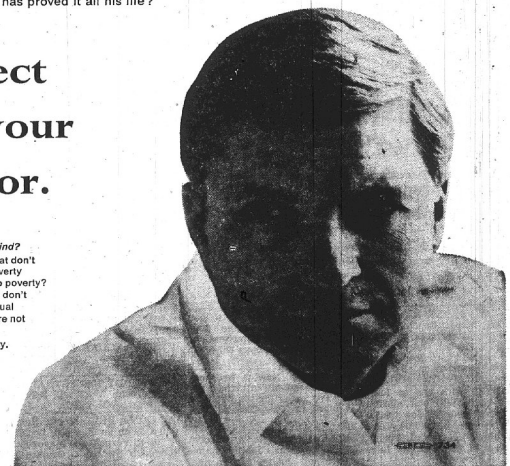

What kind of voter are you?

The Thoughtful Kind?
Disturbed at the indecisive way the Johnson Administration deals with problems? The way it lets prices and taxes both keep rising? The way it increases confusion about Viet Nam by double-talk from the White House itself? ... Then elect Charles Percy. These are the things that disturb him, too.

The Just Plain Fed-up Kind?
Fed up with promises that don't get performed? With poverty programs that don't stop poverty? With civil rights that still don't come out right? With equal opportunities that still are not equal at all? ... Then elect Charles Percy. These are the things he's fed up with, too.

Venice to Borrow Again From Bridge Fund

The city of Venice will have to dip into its bridge revenue fund for another loan to help finance continued city operation, even though the city borrowed $100,000 from its working cash fund last month.

Figures reported to the Venice city council in its regular meeting Friday night showed the city entered the month of November with a cash balance of $42,043—enough to pay city bills and salaries for about a month and a half. There is no prospect of further tax settlement income until next March.

A report by City Treasurer Bernard Anderson also showed that while the city's total available income during October was $124,421 due to the working cash fund and existing fund balances, expenditures during the month amounted to $82,377.

The unusually high monthly disbursements were due to distribution of tax income to the library fund, $14,988; the pension fund, $27,064; working cash fund, $8565, and the municipal retirement fund, $8989. Regular city operational costs for October totaled $22,851.

Must Borrow Again
Comptroller Carl Byrnes said the balance of $42,043 would last the city about a month and a half and that it will then be necessary to borrow again from the bridge revenue fund in which the city now has about $48,000. This money is being retained, however, to finance the city's share of the Broadway underpass and any money used from it to finance city operational expenses would have to be replaced from municipal income later.

This method was used last year when the city borrowed from the bridge revenue fund, then repaid it with tax money two months ago.

Venice has been experiencing financial difficulty since application of tax limitation laws to its general fund when taxes were extended early this year. It is confronted with increasing problems unless it is able to refinance outstanding bonds on city-owned McKinley bridge on which principal and interest payments are to begin increasing this year.

The council gave tentative approval Friday night to a request by the Smith Sharp Paper Co., located at the west end of McKinley bridge for a lease agreement under which the paper company would build warehouse facilities under the west end of the bridge.

Must Borrow Again
A company representative proposed a 15-year agreement with a rental of $600 per year based on a 6% yield on the value of the land which was set at $10,000, with two-year renewal options. The company would build metal-type buildings to be used for paper storage. The council approved the request subject to approval of insurance underwriters and New York interests handling bridge bonds.

A bill for $15,000 in engineering services on the Broadway underpass project by Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab were approved, to be paid out of the McKinley bridge Repair and Improvement fund. The fund appropriated $20,000 at the beginning of the year as a share toward the underpass project.

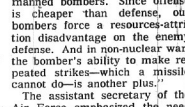

Louis Ratiff told the council the action should be taken soon toward condemnation of two pieces of property. One of these, he said, was damaged by fire several years ago and has been vacant for at least two years, he said. City clerk William "Mike" Ebersole was instructed to check into ownership of the property and discuss the matter with the owners before any action is taken to raze the buildings.

Kaseberg Outlines 3-Point C. of C. Program

A three-point program to improve the Quad-City community during the next year was outlined Thursday evening by Howard W. Kaseberg, newly installed president of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce.

In his inaugural talk, Kaseberg told an audience of nearly 400 persons attending the 26th annual meeting that with the aid of others, it will be C. of C. goals—(1) to get more citizens interested and concerned with better government, (2) to develop a closer affiliation between labor and management and (3) to develop a strong spirit of civic pride.

"I pledge my complete dedication to accomplishment of these goals," he added.

Kaseberg, who operates a farm in the Pontoon Beach area and has other business interests in the community, was presented with his gavel of office by Carl Mathias, area manager for Illinois Power Co., retiring C. of C. president.

Gift for Mathias
As a token of appreciation for his two terms in office, the Chamber board of directors presented Mathias with a set of golf woods.

Installation of the new officers—Kaseberg, Vice-President Freeman Wolf and Leo Konzen as Treasurer, A. H. Froelich as Secretary—was conducted by Chester Baker.

The dinner meeting was held in the new cafeteria at Granite City high school and was the first function to be held there. It is expected the cafeteria will to have even more unrest and revolution, to throw that we have today.

"What is likely to be the hardware composition of our future defense posture?"

"We must maintain strategic superiority, and this will, I believe, include both missiles and manned bombers. Since offense is cheaper than defense, our bombers force a resources-attrition disadvantage on the enemy defense. And in non-nuclear war, the bomber's ability to make repeated strikes—a missile cannot do—another plus."

The assistant secretary of the Air Force emphasized the need for constant up-dating, the level of defense to keep pace with accelerated technological development.

Progress in Air Force
He described the progress using the Berlin Airlift as an example. "We used 225 airplanes around the clock. That massive airlift could have been accomplished today with only ten C-5As."

On government-industry relationship, Secretary Charles noted that of this country's pre-Vietnam war defense budget of $50 billion, about half was spent with industry.

"Curiously, for the last quarter of a century, the single most important ingredient of our great economic system—competition—has been absent, to a degree, from the Air Force-industry relationship."

"There was competition in terms of estimates of what a product would do and would cost, but there was very little competition in terms of contractually binding commitments to achieve a specified performance at a specified price."

"True basic reason why there has been so little competition in Air Force awards is that our new systems often involve probing deeply into the unknown."

Bold New Step
"We took a bold new step last year when we decided to proceed with our huge new transport, the C-5A. This new step treats development and production as one, and awards the contract for an entire program on the basis of a competition at the outset."

"It is still far too early to tell, but we believe the idea is working and has applied it to several other major new programs, including our new short range, attack missile."

"I personally believe that this will not only improve the technical quality of our equipment, but will reduce its cost by at least 10 to 20%."

Concluding his talk, the assistant secretary of the Air Force said he has visited all jet bases in South Vietnam and in Guam and others in the south and west Pacific.

"You would be, as I am, proud

Tammy Paul, Infant, Dies of Pneumonia

Tammy Renee Paul, six-week-old daughter of Marion and Phyllis Paul, 944 (c) Nidmehaus avenue, was dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital about 4:30 a.m. Sunday.

The infant had been ill for a week, and death apparently was due to pneumonia, according to Deputy Coroner Robert Thomas, who plans to hold an inquiry.

Mrs. Paul said she had been awakened when the couple's other daughter, Virginia Lee, began crying. When she also went to the infant's crib, the mother discovered the child was not breathing.

The infant was born in East St. Louis, and besides her parents and sister is survived by grandparents, Mrs. Florence Paul, Mrs. Dorothy Flanery and Leon Hayes, all of Granite City. Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Church Bells Ring For Mental Health

Churches in Madison county rang "Bells for Mental Health" at noon today to remind the voters to vote "Yes" on the Mental Health Referendum.

Leonard Schwartz, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Comprehensive Mental Health, asked the pastors of all churches to participate. The Mental Health Referendum has been endorsed by the ministerial alliances of the county.

Chairman Schwartz today asked voters interested in Comprehensive Mental Health Services for Madison county to look for the tan ballot on Tuesday and vote yes. "Members of the Citizens Committee," he said, "are most optimistic that Madison county voters will support the referendum. This optimism is based on the enthusiastic response that various civic, professional, business, educational and labor groups have given the Mental Health Referendum."

The Vanishing Mule

JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University

Today a mule in harness was seen dragging small tree trunks from a clearing in Maryland to the cabin where they would be cut into stove-length firewood.

The last mule remembered before the one of today were those in the live stock exhibit at the DuQuoin State Fair in August 1965. These earlier mules were in harness, being at the time only show mules.

After earnest effort at recall, the next ones prior to that were a team drawing a sideboard load of freshly picked cotton from the farm to a gin near Cairo in Alexander county.

Driving through the countryside a few years ago, one occasionally saw an aged specimen calmly feeding in some pasture where a kindhearted owner had turned him to graze. Perhaps he had been given that easy existence out of the owners gratitude for work done in earlier years, wise withstood heat along with the abuse and negligence of farmhands much better than horses.

The farm's mule population vanished slowly, since it is not unusual for a mule to live beyond 20 years.

About to Join

Recalling those times when mules were commonplace in Southern Illinois and on southward but have now practically disappeared in about all areas, one is led to the conclusion that they are moving to join the procession of vanishing Americans.

Apparently they soon will be on a list that includes kerosene lamps, oen, pot buggies, old-time photograph albums, stereoscopes, sleighs, double shovel plows, long handled underwear, dried apples, turnip holes, Saturday nights in country towns, straight razors, rural schools and pie suppers, to name only a few. For practically all purposes except riding and racing, horses apparently are not far behind them.

Time was when mules were an institution, becoming an important element in farm life about the end of the Revolutionary War and remaining so for about 175 years. In some sections the mule still is an important factor in farming. This is especially true in those sections where small cotton and tobacco farmers predominate.

There were several mules in the colonies before the Revolution. Wherever introduced they won favor with farmers, particularly those of the south.

Washington and Jefferson commented favorably upon their use and urged its increase. Washington was especially active in his advocacy and asked our representative in Spain to make inquiry and to see if jacks and jennets could be had from there.

The King of Spain

When this came to the attention of the King of Spain two jacks and two jennets were sent to Washington, though there was a Spanish law prohibiting their export. One jack died en route. The other jack and the two jennets arrived at Washington's Mt. Vernon plantation in February 1788.

The surviving jack, a large and well formed one, was the name of Royal Gift. In the first season he sired 15 mules. In the following November a second noted Jack, given the name of the Knight of Malta, arrived. Both were large, well formed jacks that transmitted their characteristics to their progeny.

In the mule realm they hold places much like that of Justin Morgan in the horse world. The AMERICAN FARMER, one of the nation's earliest farm papers, extolled the virtues of the mule, saying that it is harder, more disease resistant and likewise withstood heat along with the abuse and negligence of farmhands much better than horses.

The paper also said mules could exist on less and rougher feed than horses. Observation and experimentation proved part of these true. Mules accordingly became the favorites of cotton and tobacco growers just at the time when both these crops were expanding rapidly.

Best from S. Illinois

While planters and tenant farmers could have grown at least part of their needs they found it more convenient and profitable to buy mules from regions outside the cotton and tobacco growing belts where conditions for their rearing were best.

Since Kentucky, Missouri and Southern Illinois were such regions, they came to be important sources for mules.

In Kentucky, mule raising became so general that those interested in horses complained that the raising of mules greatly retarded the breeding of race horses. In Missouri the raising of mules became a major industry, one that caused that state to become associated in legend. In Illinois the raising of mules became of great importance in the southern counties.

Those below the National Road. People in the remainder of the state are referred to as having "a contempt for the mule as profound as it was unreasoning."

Old men, raised on farms, will recall the mule crop that came each spring and will recall the mule buyers who came about regularly to buy and gather mules for resale to southern farms.

Nevertheless, the lore of the mule remains. Once the outcast

Mule Sale Barns

They will recall the sales barns and the droves of mules gathered there for resale to southern buyers. Some may recall the shipment of these mules by river boats, by rail, or by their being taken in droves over the roadways to the South. An indication of the extent to which this was practiced is the fact that herds of as many as 500, are recorded as passing through Greenville, S. C.

These droves would be preceded by a rider on horseback or in a buggy and would be followed by a rider or riders on horseback to urge stragglers along. The price for these mules varied with the price of cotton but averaged well above the horses of comparable age.

For the past several springs the writer does not recall seeing a mule load in the southern counties of Illinois and has not, for many years seen the once familiar posters attached to trees, posts or lively stable fronts telling that a certain farmer kept a "Spanish" jack for breeding purposes. Enfield has its annual "Mule Day." Some years, however, a span of working mules cannot be found to lead the mule remains. Once the outcast
